

Impostor Magellan

Lyrics

The procedure is complete, a new individual is born.

He will mourn...the loss of his firm.

Only a few know the truth.

The deception will take place.

But there will be a sign...to those who pay close attention.

Unable to find... the trepidation in my mind.

They will conclude that I am the great inventor.

Once the instructions are in my hand.

The wealth of mankind will flow to me, will flow to me.

There will be a sign... a few will know the truth.

The deception will take place, to those who pay attention.

He will mourn the loss of his firm.

The procedure is complete, a new individual is born.

Unable to find...the trepidation in my mind.

They will conclude that I am the great inventor.

Once the instructions are in my hand, the wealth of mankind will flow to me, will flow to me.

The procedure is complete.

A new individual is born, he will mourn the loss of his firm, only a few know the truth.

The deception will take place, but there will be a sign to those who pay close attention.

Unable to find the trepidation in my mind.

They will conclude that I am the great inventor.

Once the instructions are in my hand, the wealth of mankind will flow to me, will flow to me.

Meaning

The lyrics above are based on the character called “Impostor Magellan.”

Impostor Magellan wants to steal the files on how to build the “Knowledge Racer” (Quantum Computer) from ISC (Infinite Storm Computer) and takeover the real Timothy Magellan’s firm to become the wealthiest and most powerful person in the world.

He builds the Android/Humanoid “Temujin Galileo” and gives it the task of stealing the files from ISC.

Of course, Impostor Magellan does not know that Temujin Galileo will eventually turn against him.
